Search Warrant Executed at City Address Leads to Two Arrests

On April 14, 2022, the Manchester Police SWAT Team executed a search warrant at 725 Union Street, Apartment 6.

The warrant resulted from an investigation conducted by the Special Enforcement Division. As a result, 26-year-old Erizachart Mejias Navarro and 33-year-old Nelybel Vargas, both of Manchester, were taken into custody for Sale of a Controlled Drug.

During the search, large quantities of fentanyl, cocaine, and cash were located, along with a stolen firearm. There was also evidence of wholesale drug manufacturing inside the residence. Subsequently, Navarro was charged with the following:

- Possession with intent to distribute (Fentanyl)
- Possession with intent to distribute (Cocaine)
- Felon in possession of a firearm
- Felony receiving stolen property (firearm)
- Felonious use of a firearm
- Falsifying physical evidence
- Breach of bail

This investigation was supported through Operation Granite Shield.
